The Trinity tells us about the inner life of God, the intimate love and communion that is constantly flowing between the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. It is God's nature to share himself, and if we are created in his image and likeness, it follows that we too are meant to share our lives with each other. The Trinity is more than just a model for togetherness; it also gives us the power to live it. We can love one another as fully as Jesus loves us if we draw from the love of God that has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit. As we deepen our relationship with one another, our lives will start to reflect the very life of the Trinity and that is how we can experience the joy we are meant to know as Christians.

Glory be to the Father, who by His almighty power and love created me, making me in the image and likeness of God. Glory be to the Son, who by His Precious Blood saved me and opened for me the gates of Heaven. Glory be to the Holy Spirit, who has sanctified me in the sacrament of Baptism, and continues to sanctify me by the graces I receive daily from His bounty. Amen.*
